

ASHSHASH: FOR MEN AND WOMEN WHO HAVE ESCAPED TRAFFICKING

Ashshash is a one year pilot project which aims to mainstream 60 men and women who have escaped trafficking back into society by providing them with psychosocial counselling, skills training and entrepreneurial engagement in small-scale service oriented businesses.

KEY PROJECT COMPONENTS

OUR WORKING PARTNERS

Implementing Partners: Dhaka Ahsania Mission, Young Power in Social Action

Operational Partners: Chittagong Women Chamber of Commerce and Industries (CWCCI), Enroute International Limited, BRAC University, University of Liberal Arts Bangladesh

ASHSHASH IN PICTURES

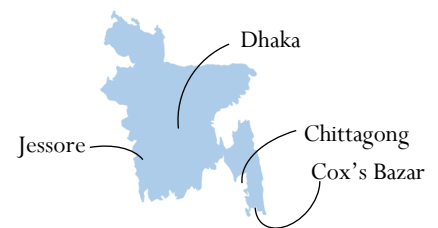

PROJECT SNAPSHOT

WHO are our target group

Female 42
Male 18

WHERE are they working

WHAT are the trades

 Air Condition and Refrigerator Servicing 2

 Motorcycle Repairing and Servicing 9

 Electrical and House Wiring 2

 Tailoring and Dress Making 31

 Computer Servicing and Repairing 1

 Beautification 14

 Food Processing 1

Do you know that 3 out of every 1000 people in Asia Pacific is a victim of human trafficking?

It's high time that together we respond to this tragic phenomenon.

